In the original publication of the article, under the section “4.1 Proposed hypothesis for Gardaneh Salavat porphyry system”, on page 509, the following sentence “Du and Audétat (2020) believed that early sulfide saturation is not necessarily detrimental to deposit formation or fertility of porphyritic intrusions. Further proving this fact” was included incorrectly.

Hence, the beginning of the paragraph should be “In alkaline Cu-Au porphyry deposits like Gardaneh Salavat ...”
